

WNTC Presents Music on Sunday

"Serenade To Spring", is a new presentation by Campus Radio Station WNTC which may now be heard every Sunday afternoon at 1:30 p. m.

The programs will include all types of music from serious to dixieland. The programs are as follows: "Previews of WNTC", 1:30-2:00 with Jerry Hackett as announcer. This program is designed to acquaint listeners with the week's programs. "Sunday Serenade", 2:00-2:30, will feature the music of Sammy Kaye and his orchestra. "Music by the Masters", 2:30-3:30, will be a program of serious music. Marydith West, Charlotte Mandronica, Robert Renino and Henry Stampf will host the program on which one or two works will be discussed and played. "Trends in Music", 3:30-4:00, will offer a variety of music, including progressive jazz, dixieland and other types of music. The announcers are Dick Tykinski and Alan Beckett. "Sunday on Broadway", 4:00-4:30, will take the listener on an imaginary trip to Broadway. Helena Spaulding will be host. "Proudly We Hail", 4:30-5:00, is presented by the U. S. Army and features an interesting and informative story pertaining to army life. "Music On a Sunday Afternoon", 5:00-7:00, is a program of recorded music with Jerry Brill as host.